

ABOUT

We are team of students from the digital media school Hyper Island in Stockholm. In the autumn of 2017, we received a brief from Tikkurila – one of the leading players in the European market. The purpose was to create a colorful and engaging digital experience for their customers. In other words, they asked us what they needed. Here is our solution.

HYPER ISLAND

ABOUT

We are team of students from the digital media school Hyper Island in Stockholm. We were asked to create a solution for the local community from Tikkurila - one of the local communities in the area. The purpose was to create a solution that would help the community in other words, they asked us what is our solution.

TIKKURILA

